John has been at Vantage Foods since June 2009 as a Floor Tech. In 2010, John was recognized as one of our Perfect Attendance recipients.

When needed, John stepped up and accepted the responsibility of making sure the lines were ready for start-up. He came in early to make sure everything was ready for production, and came in on scheduled days off.

John is consistently on the floor, making sure the floors are clean of debris or possible hazards.

He is always ready for any situation on the floor. Whether he is needed to work at the baler or in the inedible room, John is quick to respond to any task given to him.

John, you're an asset to the Vantage team and a factor in our continued success; we are fortunate to have you!
